

34

Merger

PRESENT CHALLENGE

Accepting support from all life to help you bring about the current spiritual evolutionary shift under way.

You have drawn this card of Merger because you may be needing encouragement that your efforts in bringing spiritual awareness into your paid and/or volunteer work is making a difference. You may feel lonely in your work because you seem to be the one always pushing for positive change against the established status quo. You may wonder if you are capable of staying on purpose and empowered in your mission because there seems to be so much resistance to your efforts. You may also be feeling defeated, tired, and/or burned out.

You have drawn this card because you are a light-worker of the twenty-first century. You are being guided to listen to the angels and continue your work because you are hearing guidance that others may not yet appreciate.

ANGELIC MESSAGE

Merger

You have accepted this journey through Earth School in this lifetime because you wanted the challenge of participating in the current evolutionary shift on your planet. You and all of humanity will cause this shift as the individual points of light, those people and groups living in the spiritual energy of love, merge into a powerful healing network. You are part of building and empowering this network of light, and sometimes this is lonely work.

We, your angelic teachers, understand your struggle and also your fears and frustrations. But we also see an expansive future that you may not always believe is possible. Your daily life seems normal enough in its requirements, but you are also being asked to do the extraordinary, to merge with our vision, to live in the guidance of the Creator that speaks to a different, more humane and enlightened planetary home. You are being asked to believe what you are unable to see and what many people may tell you is foolish. You are merging with those on and off the Earth who are guiding your energy because you accept a different future for humanity.

Holding a vision takes energy and effort. So when you feel let down, depressed, or afraid that your abilities and insights are insufficient to the task at hand, talk to Nature. Nature is all around you no matter where on the Earth you live. Nature is all about merger, because it functions as one entirely interwoven system. You, like Nature, are becoming more and more connected with other light-workers in physical and nonphysical reality. Through merger you gain strength and the ability to endure. After all, you know what others may not: that you draw love and comfort from experiencing these bonds. Let us comfort you when you feel unworthy or lacking in any way. Hold out your arms and let us send love into your body and mind so that you may endure, for you are the carriers of the light, the hope of the future.

SPIRITUAL OPPORTUNITY

The guidance coming to you through this flower image is to accept that you and all living things come from a common Source even though you may sometimes question your understanding of this Source. The red petals in this image are curved and in varying states of blooming, symbolic of the state of your various projects. The green stems support the flowers, and for you this translates into accepting and seeking the healing energy flowing from the Creator through Nature and into your life.

You are being guided to believe in the process of change rather than only in goals that are attained. You are being asked to accept that you are already merged with the forces of Creation that are at work in your life and on the planet. Your guidance is to continue to put forth your best efforts and to draw more extensively from the subtle beauty and force of the natural world.

APPLICATION

Nature is persistent. A sidewalk is often cracked by the green grass. Water wears away stone to create a deep gorge. The force of Nature emerges ultimately successful because of its persistence and the energy it draws from others of its kind. One blade of grass or one drop of water has no power, but many blades of grass or many droplets of water together continually change the face of the planet.

To help you draw energy from your entire support system, identify those living things that you feel aligned with and that you know support your efforts and your life. These things can be people, animals, trees, or any other individual or collective aspects of Nature or humanity. Also write out the names of your angelic teachers and guides whom you feel or know are with you, or the names of friends, relatives, or teachers who have passed into spirit. Now place each of these small slips of paper in a basket, and each morning choose one name to accept love from and to send your love to.